M.R. WALTER MONTGOMERY'S RECITALS SHORTLY AN ELEGANT TESTIMONIAL.—Mr. Walter Montgomery has given several readings to the crew of the Jamestown, the United States sloop-of-war now it Honolulu harbor, and the galiant fellows have presented him with a magnificent testimontal in the shape of a gold medal of their own designing and of local manufacture. In the centre of the circle is the semblance of the Jamestown in full sail upon a stormy ocean, the old flag, sails, spars and rigging stan-sing out in boid relief against a brilliant horizon. Surrecanding this exquisite picture is a circle of broad gold, inscribed 'United States sloop-of-war Jamestown,' and this is again encircled by an outer ring, with the giorious stars is pure diamonds on a background of naval bise. The loop of the medallion bears our city's name, art upon the reverse side the following sentence, of which Mr. Walter Montgomery may well be proud:—

"Presented to Walter Montgomery by the crew, as a tribute of recipiet well merited by his disinterested kindness and sterling good qualities of head and heart. Honolulu, April 1, 1570."
